

Rules of conduct in the Basic Court Skopje I

1. Visitors are warned that entering the court building and should comply with appropriate standards of conduct. Anyone who does not respect the rules of the court or fails to adhere to standards of conduct will be removed from the courthouse.
2. It is not allowed entry into the courthouse to people who does not have 18 years, except with permission or ordered by the court in the presence of an adult or with consent of court administration.
3. Visitors attending the trial will be placed on public places. President of the Chamber may order the removal of a person of places for visitors if it causes interruption or disruption of the order in the courtroom.
4. All need to stand when the judge enters.
5. During the trial the visitors to remain quiet and follow the instructions given by the judicial police.
6. During the trial is prohibited chat between visitors, loud noise, offensive, violent behavior or any activity that would disrupt the smooth conduct of the trial.
7. It is mandatory that persons entering the court to be properly dressed. Clothing that is considered provocative, disturbing or clothing that has offensive signs or images is strictly prohibited.
8. Mobile phones, laptops, PDA, cameras or any audio and video equipment that can record or process are not allowed when entering the courtroom. These items can be left in lockers installed for that purpose.
9. Audio and video recording without the permission of the administration are strictly prohibited in the courthouse. Judicial police is authorized to confiscate and/or remove unauthorized images.
10. Drinking, eating, smoking or use of narcotics are strictly prohibited in the courthouse.
11. Visitors may not leave luggage or personal belongings unattended. Visitors who bring unusual or excessive luggage may not be allowed entry. The Court assumes no responsibility for any lost, damaged or stolen personal items while visitors at the court.
13. Judicial Police may call for evacuation of the courthouse at any time. Please follow up and follow their instructions.